Sponsorship Regulations

- Payment of sponsorship fee

The organizer shall issue an invoice based on the Sponsorship application. At the time of application, submit payment of the sponsorship fee via bank wire transfer to the designated bank account.

- Cancellation of sponsorship application

Note that once a sponsorship application has been submitted, cancellation of the application will not be accepted. Also note that the sponsorship fee will not be refunded for accidents other than those deemed as Force Majeure by the Secretariat Office.

- Addition/revision of regulations

The organizer shall add or revise regulations, etc.

- Conference postponement/cancellation

The organizer will postpone or cancel this conference should it be determined that there are difficulties impeding the holding this conference, due mainly to the spread of an infection disease, disasters including natural and man-made catastrophes, contingencies and Force Majeure.

In the event the conference is cancelled, the organizer shall return to the sponsor the amount from the sponsorship fee, minus expenses, that should be compensated. The organizer is not responsible of making reparations for any other expenses, damages, etc. that are incurred.
